Coach Connect Participant Agreement

I agree as a participant in the Coach Connect session, May -June 2020, to abide by the following parameters:

- The purpose of this time together is to reconnect as a coach community and to assist one another in enhancing and/or expanding our coach capabilities
- The sessions are confidential and information from the sessions is not to be shared outside of the session
- We will be using Zoom to conduct the sessions.
- The session, or parts of the session, will not be recorded, unless all agree. If agree to record, the recording will only be shared with those in attendance.
- We will demonstrate generosity, respect and active listening.
- I will come with a topic, or questions, scenario, or to observe/listen, and be prepared to clarify my objective for the session.
- If not asked directly, I will ask for permission from the other before I provide feedback, or advice.
- We will abide by the ICF Code of Conduct and Ethics
- When asked and providing feedback on coaching, we will reference the ICF Coach Competencies as our standard for excellence
- I can attend one or as many of the sessions
- No one will be held liable when a person chooses to act on feedback and/or advice.
